

I respectfully request that the FCC not implement any proposal that would lessen the effectiveness of Indiana's Telephone Privacy act.
Since my Telephone number has been on the list the number of calls has been reduced from 4 to 6 per day to less than one per day.
I believe the Indiana law is effective and insures my right to not have my privacy interrupted by unwanted solicitation calls.